

FEC Identification Number: C00279851

Reference: 30 Day Post-General Report (10/14/2010-11/22/2010)

All written fundraising solicitations include a clear and conspicuous request for the contributor information which includes name, address, employer and occupation. The FEC "best effort" language is included in the solicitation: "Federal law requires political committees to report the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer for each individual whose contribution aggregate in excess of $200.00 in a calendar year."

In any cases where the required "best effort" information is not provided one written request is made to the contributor for missing employer and occupation information. A letter is sent within 30 days after receipt of the contribution to the contributor asking for the missing information, without soliciting a contribution; the contributor is informed of the federal law for the reporting of such information; the written request includes a pre-address return envelope. If the contributor information is received by the committee after the contribution has been filed it is either a) filed with the next schedule report on a amended memo Schedule A; or b) filed on or before the next regularly scheduled reporting date, amending the report originally disclosing the contribution. Where no mailing address is available at least one attempt will be made to obtain information via phone or e-mail if such information is available.

When unsolicited contributions are received, the written request for missing "best effort" information follows the procedure for requesting such information and subsequent FEC reporting as outlined above.

If information cannot be obtained during the reporting period the FEC report Schedule A information will show "requested; no response".
